

K-LOVE is my favorite radio station. It is the only one in the community that plays the Christian music that my famiy loves. I know that many of my friends and I who listen to K-LOVE would be devastated if it went off the air. The public needs some station to listen to with their children that does not talk about sex, and does not say "bitch" and "ass" freely.